Please note that all rights under the General Data Protection Regulation, to do with information about your child, rest with them as soon as they are old enough to understand these rights. This will vary from one child to another and you will wish to consider the position for your child, but, as a broad guide, it is reckoned that most children will have a sufficient understanding by the age of 12. We would therefore encourage you to share this note with your child if they are aged 12 or over.

Separately from the General Data Protection Regulation, DfE regulations provide a student's parent (regardless of the age of the student) with the right to view, or to have a copy of, their child's educational
